Re: Lynne Freeman v. Tracy Deebs-Elkenaney et. al. 22 Civ 2435 (AT)

Dear Judge Netburn:

We are attorneys for Plaintiff Lynne Freeman (“Plaintiff”) in the above-referenced action and are writing to you regarding your Order dated September 16, 2022, pertaining to the hearing that took place on September 15, 2022. Pursuant to that Order, the Court ordered, among other things, that the deadline for substantial completion of document discovery is October 14, 2022, and that Defendants shall propose search terms to Plaintiff’s counsel as soon as possible.

First, I believe that everyone has been acting diligently in an attempt to meet all of the deadlines. However, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff with a list of final search terms until September 27, which was 12 days after the hearing. Please note that, so as to avoid any further delays, Plaintiff did not ask for any changes to the search terms. However, that only left Plaintiff with 17 days to gather, review and produce documents, which was not enough time.

Accordingly, I requested yesterday from opposing counsel a one-week extension for all parties to and including October 21, 2022, to meet the deadline for substantial completion of document production. I told opposing counsel that I would still by October 14 identify with specificity which manuscripts were infringed and provide metadata to Defendants for those manuscripts. Opposing counsel for all parties agreed to the extension. Thus, we respectfully request that you grant the one-week extension.
